

- Provision for loan losses for the quarter increased $13.8 million from the same quarter last year. The increase in the provision in the current quarter was primarily due to an unusual provision of $22.7 million in the fourth quarter of 2015 as a result of an isolated atypical event experienced by a borrower, Gray Aqua.